TAO Events to Schedule
January 10, 2008

Dear Jenae,

New this week. . .

Spirit at Sea Cruise price has been reduced $70 by the cruiseline, and we're passing that savings on to you. They also extended the date at which we have to relinquish cabins to Friday, January 11. Reserve your spot now! Read about the retreat in the article below or click here.

Please sponsor an Oneg. Without your help, this delightful part of our Shabbos gathering will change its shape. Help us start our New Year off with prosperity. Thus we are told that it is a wise practice to contribute to a worthy charity before praying. What better time than sponsoring an Oneg. . . which is after praying. Please call the office to reserve your Oneg. (954-4252-1313). Oneg sponsorships available starting with the January 18, Interfaith service.

Jan 14 - Wisdom Class

We are thrilled that Karen Tina Sheskin will be leading the January 14 Wisdom Class. If you have not attended her sessions in the past, you'll certainly want to mark your calendar and plan to attend.

Here's a preview of the upcoming class:

The Jewish people lived in a loose confederation of independent tribes after they had left Egypt with Moses, wandered for 40 years, reentered and conquered portions of their homeland under Joshua. So why and how did they choose to exchange their autonomy for a monarchy? How did the person/God dynamic change? Who chose the Kings? How did they differ from other Kings? How did the two Jewish nations of Israel and Judea arise, not once, but twice? How did women help Judaism evolve and pose

- You know them for new, like new, and used books, DVDs & VHS. You can also buy BRAND NAME clothing & accessories; computer, office supplies & electronics, food, groceries & household items; health & beauty; home & garden; kids & toys; sports & fitness; tools & automotive.

TAO Networking...

A place where members showcase their dangerous challenges to its continuity?

These questions and more will be answered by exploring the lives, times, relationships and choices of Hannah, Eli, Samuel, Saul and David. Prophecy, corruption, pledging of unborn children, curses, civil war, madness, love, murder, incest, city planning, miracles....more action and intrigue than in any fictional novel!

January 21 Wisdom Class - Kabbalistic Tu B'Shevat Seder

Prepare to taste your spiritual pulp in this very special Wisdom Class as Rabbi Marc leads us through a kabbalistic seder celebrating Tu B'Shevat, Judaism's bow to the grace and lessons of trees and the fruits they bear. Like the sap which rises and warms the branches of trees in winter, Tu B'Shevat represents the rising life force as the year moves toward spring-a celebration of the seeds of intent germinating in the gardens of our minds, hearts, spirits and experience. For this class, members $5; non-members $10 additional.

Attend Wisdom Classes from home for only $10 a meeting. Starting Monday, you can participate and listen to a recorded version of any given Wisdom Class for only $10. Simply register before 5pm on Monday to receive the phone number and call in code for that week.

REDISCOVERING MY CHILDHOOD

Memories of a Child Survivor of the Holocaust

by Max Amichai Heppner

"Rediscovering" depicts my 1996 journey to the Netherlands to revisit people and places I remembered, including the old windmill where I once hid out. The video sets a natural tone, letting witnesses talk without scripting. Crisp editing brings out the essence of their testimony. Running time is 60 minutes.

PURPOSE

For myself, I wanted to produce this video to make sense of events that occurred when I was escaping the Holocaust as a pre-teen. Reliving my rescue helped me uncover the truth hidden behind my memories.

For others, I wanted to depict what life was like for Jews who succeeded in dodging the Nazis. Many aspects of my survival parallel the experiences of Anne Frank, whose hiding place (and former residence) on the Prinsengracht in Amsterdam, is across the canal from where I lived as a child. Like Anne's diary, this video contrasts the everyday life of Jewish people in hiding with the potential devastation facing all Jews during the Holocaust.

SAMPLE SCENE

Near the start of the video, you see me walk down a long footpath toward a windmill where I once had been hidden during my escape from the Nazis. Guided by Jan Paardenkooper, who coordinated our shoot in Holland, we are hailed by an old man. He lives along the path leading to a mill, and he recalls a young boy that had been hidden at the mill during the War:

"What luck he had," the old man says. "Is he still alive?"

Jan, a bit surprised that the old man doesn't recognize me, responds: "That other boy, yes, that's he." And he points at me.

"Yeah?" the old man says incredulously.

"Yes, that's me," I confirm, as the old man keeps shaking his head in disbelief.

PRODUCERS

Ron Israel, Director, Cameraman, and Editor is an independent film, video, and theater producer headquartered in Baltimore, MD

Les Bradley, Post Production Editor shaped the video into its current format, bridging elements from 16 rolls of video film. He is a retired professor of media production at Notre Dame University in Baltimore, MD.

Max Amichai Heppner, Facilitator, Script Writer, and Narrator is a professional writer and lecturer who has spoken extensively on the Holocaust, notably at the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum and the Jewish Museum of Maryland in Baltimore, which house mementos from my escape (in part shown in the video).

Natalie Sibiski, Cover Design, done as a

6-year-old artist. She has pictured my windmill hiding place, which is the theme of the video, the way I might have done it if I'd have had my art supplies with me at the time.

This will be a touching viewing. Don't miss it. Write the date in your calendar now!

Rabbi Marc's turning 40, and we're celebrating!

Matterz on March 2, 2008 at 4:15pm.

Last year's tribute sold out, and unfortunately, we cannot get more seats than the Fire Department allows, so make sure to register early to assure your seat.

Laffing Matterz is located at: 219 South Andrews in Ft. Lauderdale.

Rabbi Marc Labowitz was born to be a rabbi. Like his namesake, Rabbi Mordechai Rabinovitch of Baltimore, Z'l, his grandfather Rabbi Herschel Leibowitz Z'L, and his parents Rabbis Shoni and Phillip Labowitz, he brings the deepest spirit of Judaism and Torah to his life and his community.

Rabbi Marc brings his passionate expression of Judaism and his strong sense of social justice to the community. His deepest spiritual practice is to foster a world in which freedom, acceptance and love are the essence of all paths.

With his warmth and exuberance, he enhances the meaning in our lives with his personality, his depth of teaching and sharing, his love of Torah and Kaballah.

When he sings and composes music with Paulina, those melodies lead congregants in exploring their spirituality in a manner that brings balance to their lives and freedom to their spirits.

Rabbi Marc is passionate about life and Judaism. His warm and caring approach to life attracts people from all corners of the community. With the help from the Holy One, we know that he will bring the sweetness of Torah and Judaism to our world so in need of Tikkun Olam. May he continue to be a guiding light for TAO for at least another forty years.

Nourish Your Soul

Donations to TAO are tax deductible.

Sponsor this newsletter or make a donation. We are, as always, so grateful for your passion and love for TAO.

Newsletter sponsorships are $180 for one week and $480 for four. Call 954-252-1313 to reserve your dates.

Your support makes a huge impact on the work we do. Many of us, without TAO, would not be affiliated. TAO, The South Florida Center for Jewish Renewal, brings a special connection to you, the Divine and Judaism.

Please remember TAO in your will.
