Today's Parsha

Mar 25, 2010 - 10 Nissan 5770

Tzav: Leviticus: 6: 1-8: 36

"Moses took some of the blood and put it on the ridge of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toes of his right foot."

Wisdom by Rabbi Shoni

When you pay attention to details as though they are endowed with enormous spiritual powers, your life becomes infinitely more interesting, magical and new.

Reprinted from "Miraculous Living" Calendar. Special thanks to Dr. Lisa J. Sirota-Weiner.

Join TAO Mission to Haiti June 7-13

Join Rabbi Marc and TAO on a mission to Haiti.

How many times have you watched the news and silently commented to yourself, "That's terrible. I wish there was something I could do." Well, now there is. Join Rabbi Marc and other TAO members on a mission to Haiti. Through Father Michel's good work, we identified that we can help rebuild the orphanage's massive rubble heap into livable conditions.

Will you join us? While we are searching for architects, contractors, people in construction, brick layers, medical personnel and the like, the only real requisite is that you are willing and able to participate in manual labor.

This mission is not for those who have compromised health or immune systems as you may be exposed to airborne health threats. Please be cautious and make sure you are well enough to handle the elements and the physical labor required.

This is not a resort activity. We cannot guarantee what your living or sleeping conditions will be. We cannot guarantee you will have three square meals a day.

According to CDC (Center for Disease Control), "Before visiting Haiti, you may need to get vaccinations and medications for vaccine-preventable diseases and other diseases you might be at risk for at your destination. Your doctor or health-care provider will determine what you will need, depending on factors such as your health and immunization history, areas of the country you will be visiting, and planned activities. To have the most benefit, see a health-care provider at least 4-6 weeks before your trip to allow time for your vaccines to take effect and to start taking medicine to prevent malaria, if you need it." Please read CDC's article online at wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/haiti.aspx for the latest information for Haiti relief workers.

We are trying to block a group of airline seats. Though you will be responsible for your own airfare and incidental costs, please call soon as we need to get an idea of how many people plan to go so that we can negotiate lower airfares.

For more details, call Rabbi Marc.

Welcome to TAO

At TAO, you find joy, meaning & purpose to life. We identify universal truths rooted in Torah, Kabbalah and other traditional Jewish sources and draw deeply on our inner truths, communal wisdom and spiritual traditions in accordance with the ongoing process of the living Torah.

Meditation, dance, chanting, song and music, present in Judaism throughout the ages, is an integral part of our services.

Join us and embark on a spiritual journey into your Jewish soul!

Mazel Tov

Mazel Tov to Arik & Aliza

It is with great joy and unimaginable relief to be able to announce the birth of our beautiful baby boy at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday, weighing 5 pounds 11 ounces. He was beautiful the moment he came out and seems to be getting cuter with every moment. Thank you all for your blessings and support.

Love,

Road Rally - A Blast!

We traveled all over Northern Broward and discovered some really funny, unusual and outrageous places as part of the clues. Everyone came back with some pretty funny stories and great pictures of their experiences. It was amazing where some people wound up! The Road Rally ended at Pappas Restaurant for a fabulous four course dinner of salmon or veggie lasagna, thanks to Spiro Pappas, in Coral Springs.

As the evening went on Bob Heaton entertained us with his great guitar, and we all joined in a spirited sing-a-long to oldies but goodies.

"The road rally was a blast!" said Penny Cheever. We sped around the county in search of clues and business cards. I haven't a 'clue' what we did right, but I do know that we missed the commerce clue by a mile! It was fun to hangout with new friends and chase the neon lights and hoofing feet. We're happy we participated. Thanks TAO for a fun evening."

Thanks to Chairpeople Rhonda Hey and Lowell Gannon for coordinating this fun, fun event and to their committee: Jacci King, Joy Lasky, Nancy Mendelson, Rose Moussa, Helen Skinner and everyone who sold raffle tickets.

Defending last year's win, and capturing it again this year were Sheila & Richard Tobier. Also in their car contributing to this year's win were also Arnie Katz, Richard Horowitz, Jon Rosen and Eleanor Orzeck.

Winning the Hi-definition 36" television (even though she's gallivanting around the world on vacation) was Ethelind Wiener. We thank you and everyone else who could not attend for participating. And congratulations!

At the last clue, we were asked to take a funny picture of ourselves at our stop prior to finding the dinner location. Click here to see Road Rally pictures.

NEW 8-week session

Through April 15

Attendance is mandatory and closed after first session!

7 p.m.

This open and ongoing inquiry into the nature of being male emphasizes the joys, privileges, and constraints of being a Jewish male in today's world. Designed to facilitate the unfolding of our uniqueness as individual males as well as our inseparability from and bond with other men; here is an opportunity to be a "man among men."

You are encouraged to take your mask off and learn how to be intimate with other men, build empowering relationships and support other men as only men can do for each other.

Current themes include: integrity, commitment, service, acknowledgment, appreciation and gratitude.

Come home to the brotherhood of men, and take your place as a man among men. All TAO men are invited to this unique strictly-male opportunity. Please call Dr. Richard Hey if you have any questions 954-806-6601.

Once a new eight-week session has

At the Rabbi's house, an attendant will give you a handout with the places you may park. Rabbi Marc did a lot of work to secure parking places acceptable to his development's Board and the City. We must heed the allotments and not park elsewhere.

Please respect the neighbors if they should ask you to move your car or not park in their swale - even if they previously gave permission to park there. By being respectful of their wishes, we assure fewer problems in the future.

"I used to think Friday night TAO services were the most precious place to touch God. The love and energy swirled and then rested and then gathered momentum and then quieted again and my soul connected.

"Then I found Saturday mornings at our private sanctuary in Davie. The music and the intimacy and the soulfulness touched me deeply, and I knew this was the most precious place for me to touch God in the presence of my beloved community.

"Then I returned to our sanctuary for a gentle yoga/meditation/chanting morning, and I truly knew that this was my most precious place and time to open my heart to my God. My eyes filled with tears of joy and my soul filled with the love and fulfillment that sacred silence in the presence of loved ones can bring.

"I find the connection in many places, the mountains in the early morning, walking with a loved one on the beach, the silence of the in-between places of my life. How grateful I am to be able to share this incredibly loving God space. And I am so grateful that I know it. Really know it."

May 27 - Summer Internship Application Due

June 21 - August 31, 2010

Isabella Freedman Summer Internship Program

Elat Chayyim Center for Jewish Spirituality

Take 10 weeks at Isabella Freedman Jewish Retreat Center in the foothills of the Berkshires to discover yourself through our unique internship program, incorporating: Jewish spiritual practice; healthy, natural living; service to others; and membership in a loving, inclusive community within which to connect deeply to Jewish life, learning, lore, and spirituality.

As an intern, you will give 36 hours each week of service to facilitate the experience of summer retreat participants. You will choose the study opportunities that interest you, and learn from great teachers of esoteric, spiritual, artistic, and grounded aspects of Judaism. You will help build a conscious community and develop personally motivating spiritual practices. You will have daily and weekly opportunities to explore meditation, yoga, communal prayer, organic gardening, Torah study, the great outdoors, and Shabbat.

Throughout the course of the program, you will dwell in a community rooted in emotional safety, mutual respect, and authentic sharing. This conscious community supports each individual's exploration of self, God, Jewish identity, and personal relationships in a vibrant, deep, and inclusive Jewish context.

Interns generally range in age from 20s to 60s. They come from all over the world and from diverse backgrounds with different levels of Jewish education and practice. Interns may work in recreation (lifeguard at pool and lake, nature hiking, rope course and rock scramble), arts and crafts, children's program, kitchen, housekeeping, retreat and A/V production, &/or guest services.

It is important that interested applicants are: willing and able to work hard and to see work itself as a spiritual practice; willing to co-create and participate wholeheartedly in a respectful and caring, multi-generational and diverse community of interns, staff members, teachers, and retreat participants.

The Internship program costs $180 including work, all programs, very basic housing, and wholesome kosher meals. Spaces are limited. Acceptance into the program is at the sole discretion of the Summer Internship Coordinator and Isabella Freedman's executive leadership. The program is trans-denominational and inclusive.

Applying to the Program

Please visit our website for the 2010 Summer Internship Application. Email application to Rhonda Rosenheck at ECinternship@IsabellaFreedman.org. Admission is rolling, with no applications taken later than May 27, 2010.

The program application fee is $80. If you are accepted as an intern and choose to participate in the program, this $80 application fee will be applied towards the $180 Internship Program fee. If you are not accepted into the Internship Program, we will refund your $80 application fee.

Just as in an election where each vote counts, your personal contribution tells us that you care and are willing to be counted as a supporter of our Jewish Renewal Center. Your membership allows the continued growth of our community.

Please consider donating the higher level of membership, for there are some who cannot afford even the basic level of giving. We turn no one away, and your donations help us support all who need us. Anyone who wants to pray with us is welcome.

What you derive from membership is priceless and often cannot be put into words, but without the price, we can't offer the service.
